IFDS Canada announces leadership change

Katherine MacMillan named President and CEO of IFDS Canada

TORONTO – May 20, 2014 – International Financial Data Services (IFDS), a leading global provider of technology and outsource services to the financial services industry, recently announced the appointment of Katherine MacMillan as President and CEO of IFDS Canada. She will be based in Toronto.

Ms. MacMillan takes over for Debralee Goldberg, who was recently named President of DST's U.S. Investment Recordkeeping organization.

"We are delighted to welcome Katherine as the new leader of our Canadian operations," said Simon Hudson-Lund, Executive Chairman, IFDS. "Given our increasingly global client base, Katherine's wealth of international experience will play a pivotal role in ensuring the continued success of IFDS in Canada."

Prior to IFDS, Katherine spent over 15 years at Manulife Financial, where she held various leadership roles. In her last role at Manulife, Katherine served as Executive Vice President & General Manager, leading teams across Canada, the United States, the Philippines and India with full accountability for strategy and continued growth of the John Hancock Retirement Plan Services business. Katherine was also honored as one of Canada's top leaders in the "Top 40 under 40" program, a national program that uniquely celebrates the achievements of 40 Canadians in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors.

"I want to build upon IFDS' success to generate new opportunities for the future, to ensure we stay at the forefront of our field," said Ms. MacMillan. "I am tremendously pleased to be leading IFDS at this exciting stage of the organization's history."

IFDS continues to be recognized for innovative solutions, technology and for its corporate social responsibility. IFDS has recently been honoured with the Custody Risk Americas award for "Technology Innovation of the Year" and was the "Business Intelligence Leader" winner at the Ventana Research Leadership Awards. In 2013, IFDS won a Silver Stevie Award for "Corporate Social Responsibility Program of the Year," and two Bronze Stevies for "Client Service Team of the Year" and "B2B Marketing Campaign of the Year."
